Required participation in competitions and club events

Please complete the following that highlights the requirement for you to be involved in competitions and club events. Membership as an athlete is for the purpose of training so that you can compete for Longwood Harriers, either in club competitions and leagues or those you enter yourself independently.

Name _____ Son/Daughter's name _____

The Club is run entirely by volunteers. We are asking all applicants for membership or their parents/carers to indicate how they wish to be involved with the club. To be a member as an athlete, part A must be read and completed by you or a parent/carer:

A. All Athletes (Parents/Carers complete for under 18s): A record will be kept of competitions so we can focus our coaching resources on those who compete. Continued membership will depend on participation in competitions in the previous year from April to March

I agree that the purpose of my membership of Longwood Harriers Athletics Club is to train to improve for competition. I agree to take part in at least one competition per year where the club scores points or where I compete as an individual entered as 'Longwood Harriers'

B. Non-competitors including Parents/Carers

We need helpers at various times and would like to keep a list of those who could be called upon to assist with the various club activities regularly or occasionally. Please tick the box if you are willing to be added to the list and assist the club in a range of activities

Welcome - we hope you enjoy your time with Longwood Harriers!
